

Der Comenius Song

Text und Melodie: Moritz von Blanckenburg

C F G

Pu - pils of co - me - ni - us , let us sing to - ge - ther !

F

Now you are in ger - ma - ny , su - nny is the wea - ther !

G G C F G

E - ven , if the rain - drops fall , or the wind is blo - wing, let us say: „Hel - lo!“ to all . Friend - ship we're sho - wing .

F

F G C

Clap your hands * stand up and smile * so we can hear * it for a while ****

C C F G C

Clap your hands * stand up und smile * so we can hear * it for a while ****

Johann Amos was his name, and I heard him talking:
 „Boys and girls are all the same, hand in hand they're walking, and the Lord will make us free, black and white he's leading.
 Everyone should learn and see!“ Words of peace we're reading

Clap your hands * stand up and smile * so we can hear * it for a while ****
 Clap your hands * stand up and smile * so we can hear * it for a while ****